Welcome pack

Congratulations on your engagement and thank you for getting in touch and considering Una Bloom as your wedding florist. I appreciate it is such a special day in your lives and I'd love the opportunity to play a part in making it that little bit more special through my bespoke floral design service.

I have put together this welcome pack to give you a better understanding of the next steps in your exciting journey to your final wedding flowers.

Let me start by introducing myself, I'm Aisling, lead designer & owner of Una Bloom. My aim as a wedding florist is to create a bespoke floral scheme & aesthetic unique to each individual couple, ensuring your flowers reflect your personality on your wedding day.

For your initial consultation I will have already worked up a selection of mood boards and will go through all details to ensure I can deliver the flowers of your dreams on your wedding day. Following this initial consultation a personalised proposal will be created for the couple, and will include a list of all details discussed in our consultation, finalised mood boards and a precise itemized quotation.

Please read through the following page to better understand the next steps in your floral design journey, and feel free to ask me any questions or queries you might have.

I would love the opportunity to create your dream wedding flowers.

Warm regards

Aisling x

1. Pre Consultation Questionnaire

To give me a better understanding of what you require from your wedding florist please review, complete & return the pre consultation questionnaire on the following page. Not only will this allow me to best prepare for our consultation, but it is also a helpful checklist for the bride & groom to be. Of course, if you find it easier to list out your requirements in an email please feel free to do so, as I said, this is just a guide to help me better understand your needs and we can discuss further during our consultation.

2. Consultation

I will tailor your consultation to best suit you; either on site, at your wedding venue or, alternatively in a location of the couples choosing. This could be at your home or in a nearby cafe or hotel, wherever you feel most comfortable. If it is the case that a face to face consultation cannot be arranged I am happy to arrange to meet via video conference call or by phone.

3. Pricing
